ATHOLL & BREADALBANE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY

DISCLAIMER OF LIABILITY

Save for personal injury or damage caused by the negligence of the organisers or anyone for whom they are in law responsible, the organisers of the Atholl & Breadalbane Agricultural Show accept no liability for any accident, injury or damage to competitors, spectators or any other person or property whatsoever.

ELIGIBILITY FOR ENTRY

It should be noted that entries will be strictly confined to the Show Area. The show is confined to the area embraced by the former Atholl, Aberfeldy and Killin branches of the National Farmers Union of Scotland. This means that competitors must have a residence within the show area and the animal(s) must be kept within the show area at all times, with the exception of Highland Ponies (Classes 30-41 inclusive) and Clydesdale Horses (Classes 45-56 inclusive) for which entry from outside the area will be by invitation of the committee. THIS WILL BE STRICTLY ADHERED TO BY THE ORGANISERS AND ENTRIES OUTWITH THE AREA WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED, EITHER ON PAPER OR ON THE DAY.

If in doubt, please contact the Show Office on 01887 820666.

GUIDELINES FOR HORSE & PONY COMPETITORS

Hard hats should be worn when loading/unloading and MUST BE WORN at all times when mounted. Hats must conform to PAS015, ASTM F1163 or EN1384 with a kitemark or SEL.

Extreme care must be used when mounted outside of the competition rings.

No cantering.

Control of the Horse or Pony should be maintained at all times.

Competitors will be excluded from taking part in competition if adequate control is not maintained.

Riders must behave in a courteous and safety conscious manner towards officials and spectators at all times.

NOTES FOR HORSE & PONY EXHIBITORS: -

Passports must be produced when collecting rider numbers.

Guidelines for Turnout in Mountain & Moorland ridden classes: -

- Bridles should be plain and workmanlike.
- Plain browband – metal or clincher are permitted but some judges don't like them (NB: brass was traditionally for stallions)
- Either no numnah or one which is discreet and matches the horse and saddle
- No boots or bandages
- Brown or black tack – brown is preferred by traditional judges and is always correct in the show ring
- Snaffle bridle for novice classes
- Double bridle or pelham for open classes
- Straight cut or working hunter saddles show more of the horse's shoulder and movement, so are preferable to GP saddles
- Manes, tails and feathers may be pulled/trimmed in some breeds, according to the breed society's specifications
- Quarter markers are not correct for native ponies
- In-hand Classes - horses and ponies should be shown in a suitably fitting bridle/headcollar/halter
